

Landing in Love

Stonebolt

Can you feel that rush, makes the whole world hush
Makes your flesh go flush, you break a sweat
Is your soul on fire with your hearts desire
Out there on the wire without a net
Does it take your breath are you scared to death?
With one kiss we'll be risking it all
If we dance this dance, if we take this chance
We'll be landing in love when we fall
It's an act of God, it's against all odds
And we hold lightening rods up in the sky
It's that leap of faith, we all have to take
But hearts don't have to break when they can fly
Does it take your breath, are you scared to death?
With one kiss we'll be risking it all
If we dance this dance, if we take this chance
We'll be landing in love when we fall
If we dance this dance, if we take this chance
We'll be landing in love
One more kiss, one more touch
We'll be landing in love when we fall
