

The time passing

Never Shout Never

Looking through the glass as wipers clean the windshield and I know for the first time, rainy days can be wiped away with your laugh, with your smile I'm just that guy who's in denial. Punishment to interrogation
I got some of the signs but I'm lacking straight answers Someone as artistic as you, you should be able to
to paint the picture for me
The truth for anyone who asks Even Hollywood would find this one for me, this one for me and your answers are the greatest questions And you hang your heart up and you learn your lesson.
