

Down From the Sky

Trivium

A chasm grows
With the cavity of serpentine teeth
(Serpentine teeth)Hunger pains strike
For the sweet feast of innocent blood
Of innocent bloodshedNow here we goThe vampires feed on the wars of mankind
The vampires feed on the wars of mankindGrowing fat on the throne of an empire
Tyrant rules with the threat of a great fireI've opened up my eyes
Seen the world for what it's worth
Tears rain down from the skyThey'll blow it all to bits
To prove whose god wields all the power
Fire rains down from the skyThe gaping wounds
Hemorrhaging the blood from which they feast
(Blood from which they feast)Eat us alive
Consume to feed a hunger with no
A hunger with no end
Let's fucking goThe vampires feed on the wars of mankind
The vampires feed on the wars of mankindGrowing fat on the throne of an empire
Tyrant rules with the threat of a great fireI've opened up my eyes
Seen the world for what it's worth
Tears rain down from the skyThey'll blow it all to bits
To prove whose god wields all the power
Fire rains down from the skyThis battle's not the same
Which they have led us to believeA synthesis of propaganda
Terror and deceitWe are the cattle
They the slaughter
Our meat, gasolineThey pump us through the machine's valves
To cleanse the world's "disease"
We are the ammunition
That will cause all life to ceaseAnnihilate
All those who stand in their way
Obliterate
They'll rain their holocaust
Down from the skyThe vampires feed on the wars of mankind
The vampires feed on the wars of mankindGrowing fat on the throne of an empire
Tyrant rules with the threat of a great fireI've opened up my eyes
Seen the world for what it's worth
Tears rain down from the skyThey'll blow it all to bits
To prove whose god wields all the power
Fire rains down from the skyAnnihilateAll those who stand in their way

Obliterate
They'll rain their holocaust
Down from the sky
