Neeraj Sridhar

shut up shut up
i wanna hear that pin pricking
shut up shut up
i wanna hear that nail scrape
shut up shut up
up your insipid voice
shut up shut up
is that your glass heart clinking?
i want to go to bed every second wrap your arms around your kitty she wont cuddle up to your disgusting feet shes not the only one who wont the gamecube is on its tender buttons hide crazy is the place your gigantic fat body fits crazily it fits into any bed
shut up shut up
i wanna hear that pin pricking
shut up shut up
i wanna hear that nail scrape
shut up shut up
up your insipid voice
shut up shut up
is that your glass heart clinking?
whats done is done
it cannot be undone
whats done is done
it cannot be undone
whats done is done
