

Time of My Life

Patrick Wolf

From the east to the south
I tongue the roof of my mouth
To new days of doubt without you
First gear I face the trouble ahead
Final word's been said
Long distance spread between us
I tell myself to Hold on, won't be long
Till I grow through this struggle
Time to wake up
Find my soul Happy without you
Happy without you
Happy without you
Happy without you
Happy without you Not called for weeks now
It's six days without sleep means
I am a slave to my early grave If I do not be brave, behave
Seize myself out of this mess
I have created of myself yet again
Yet again I say Hold on, won't be long
Till I grow through this struggle
Time to wake up
Find my soul Happy without you
Happy without you
Happy without you
Happy without you
Happy without you We go on, heart beats strong
Still whole, unbroken
As we divide our love goodbye
Thanks for the time, time of my life Happy without you
Happy without you
Happy without you
Happy without you Time, time of my life
Time, time of my life
(So happy without you) Time, time of my life
Thanks for the time of my life
(Happy without you, happy without you) Happy without you
