

Fish Out of Water

Nicola Roberts

I'm a day, a day without the night
I'm a day, a day without the night You're my childhood sweetheart
Everyday I dream of you
Now we're living apart
You took a part of me with you And since I'm not doing you
They're finding things for me to do
But you're my childhood sweetheart
You took a part of me with you So what happens now?
You're turning down the volume
Am I supposed to start anew?
So what happens now?
You're turning down the volume
I'm tired of jumping through your hoops I'm a day without the night (a day without the night)
A fish out of water
Now you've left me and it's like
A la-la-la lullaby You're my childhood sweetheart
The one I chased for so many years
Feels like you've got your hands locked
Over my lips and ears All those lovely words sang turned into frustrated tears
But you're my childhood sweetheart
I will chase you
Yeah I'll chase you, I will chase you So what happens now?
You're turning down the volume
Am I supposed to start anew?
So what happens now?
You're turning down the volume
I'm tired of jumping through your hoops The clock struck 12 and you, you just slipped away
And all I ever knew, told me I couldn't play
So what am I to do find another game?
You made me all that I became, I really want you back again I'm a day without the night (a day without the night)
A fish out of water Music you are my life
I can't handle a goodbye I'm a day without the night (a day without the night)
A fish out of water
Now you've left me and it's like
A la-la-la lullaby Even, if I have to go alone
I'd rather that then let you go
So I'll face the road unknown
