

Colors

Josh Garrels

Lift up your shoulders child
Breathe in
Carry the weight of love
Youâ€™ve been given
Storm is passing by
Light breaks in
As you learn to sing
Every color can
Be unwound
Woven into a wave
Of beautiful sound
Open the heavenlies and
Shake the ground
And change the world
So let all the creatures sing
Praises over everything
Colors are meant to bring
Glory to the light
Voices might fade away
And begin
Become a tapestry
We all are in
No one will ever be Forgotten
Thereâ€™s a place for us
So let all the creatures sing
Praises over everything
Colors are meant to bring
Glory to the light
Glory to the throne
This is our story
This is our song
Weâ€™re telling it slowly all life long
Of a Savior and what Heâ€™s done
Itâ€™s a mystery
