Fuzz Face

Belleruche

Would you mind if I just dropped by
Said a little hello and gave you some attention
Could I drop by unannounced
Let myself in, would it be so surprisingOr too forward too brash too bold
Too rash head strain too sneaky
Just say the word if it's all too much
I might listen to you, but you better saw it sweetlyIf you do well you're damned if you don't
Said if you do well you're damned if you don't
Said if you do well you're damned if you don't
Said if you do well you're damned if you don'tWithout a game it's oh so simple
Without a game I wouldn't want to
Without a game it's not surprising
Without a game I couldn't have youWould you mind if I took a little liberty
Switched it up, dodged the bullet coming back at me
Sometimes I may be a little reckless Throw reason out and let it go to my headI love the glow of your little green dragon
It makes you do things you'd not imagined
Not contemplate the sweet indecency
Before we lose the moment we're inIf you do well you're damned if you don't
Said if you do well you're damned if you don't
Said if you do well you're damned if you don't
Said if you do well you're damned if you don'tIf you do well you're damned if you don't
Said if you do well, you're damned if you don't
Said if you do well you're damned if you don't
Said if you do well you're damned if you don'tWithout a game it's oh so simple
Without a game I wouldn't want to
Without a game it's not surprising
Without a game I couldn't have youI'm of a conviction I will live once
So I ask myself now why the hell not Far from hedonistic extravagance
Explain till I'm blue, any of this making senseIf you get it wrong, misunderstand me
I dare you to try and call me anything
Happens regardless, I couldn't care
Well I couldn't even care less, if you call me shamelessWithout a game it's oh so simple
Without a game I wouldn't want to
Without a game it's not surprising
Without a game I couldn't have youWithout a game it's oh so simple
Without a game I wouldn't want to
Without a game it's not surprising

Without a game I couldn't have you
