Killin' Time

Diamond Rugs

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

As you're getting ancient
As the spring dies
Cruising like summer
Just passing throughKilling time
Forgetting to remember
Killing time
Trying to wake up
Killing time
Checking you outIn your distant sigh
I see the fall leaves
Then winter, I'm on the inside
But I can't hideKilling time
Working on a problem
Killing time
Pretending it's all right
Killing time
Oh picking a religion
Killing time
But it don't work
Killing time
Just wondering why
Killing time
AmenKilling time
Wondering about the government
Killing time
Hanging out in my body
Killing time
Watching some paint dry
Killing time
Having revelations
Killing time
Walking to the mailbox

Killing time
Making this record
Killing time
I'm tuning my guitar
Killing time
I got so old mine
Killing time
I'm waiting on a buddy
Killing time
Fuck it - you get in line
Killing time... repeatTime's killing me too
Killing time
It's killing me too man
Killing time
I meant to say I'm sorry
Killing time
Oh it's alright
Killing time
I loved you best for so long
Killing time
Come over here c'mon
Killing time
Oh, ah I'm giving you a hug
Killing time... repeat
I miss you grandpa
