Ambition

John Vanderslice

forget about suzzanne
she's with some other man
don't worry about your boy he's got a computerforget about the role it went to some other bloke
so what?
you'll never meet (never meet) sharon stoneyou need to lose ...
you need to lose ...
ambition...
ambition...open up your mouth
we'll watch the dropper empty out
I made it myself
I call it sexy sadiewalk down the street where pine and heather meet and fluttering birds
are stronger than wordsyou need to lose ...
you need to lose ...
ambition...
ambition...
