Firebreather

Running Wild

(Rolf Kasparek)
Three days of darkness, eternal light
Celestial sign swallows up the light
A raging storm, Armaggeddon's here
The enslaved's hope is the evil fear
He rides the wind on silent wings, Laserbeams ripping steel
Black helicopters go up in flames, before they know that he's real
Firebreather, raging from the stormy sky
Firebreather, smoke and thunder steal the light away
Black soldiers walk the gates of hell
They drop their mask, they come off their shell
Minotaurs and genetic beasts
Invade the world with a bloody feast
He rides the wind on silent wings, Laserbeams ripping steel
Black helicopters go up in flames, before they know that he's real
Firebreather, raging from the stormy sky
Firebreather, smoke and thunder steal the light away
Man in black your time is up
Universal law, your outta luck
No dirty tricks, no unfair fight
He shoots your head off with his first strike
He rides the wind on silent wings, Laserbeams ripping steel
Black helicopters go up in flames, before they know that he's real
Firebreather, raging for the stormy sky
Firebreather, smoke and thunder steal the light away
