I Feel

Dokken

Seeing no one touching something
Fingers reaching out
Senses burning, all from learning
No ones sees the colors in my mindSilent darkness speaks my name
Everything changes yet stays the same
Like darkness into day, I know what is to come
Long days without sunI feel
I feelSlowly moving endless motion
Floating forward now
Soaring higher, drifting nowhere
I felt that I was somewhere elseTotal blindness still remains
Everyone changes, I feel the same
The hours slips away, Ill feel this pain no more
My future waits outside the doorI feel
I feel
Blood stained eyes, open wide
I feelThe sun is shining over me
Warming my senses, I make a plea
Im guilty of feeling, its right time of healing
So why is it so hard to see?I feel
Crystallized piece of time
I feel
Blood stained eyes, open wide
I feelI feel
I feel
I feel
I feel
I feel
I feel
