

Ordinary Joe

Jasmine Kara

For my openin' line
I might try to indicate my state of mind Or turn you on- or tell you that I'm laughin' Just to keep from cryin' Pretty music, when you hear it, keep on tryin' to get near it A little rhythm for your spirit But that's what it's for- c'mon in here's the door. I've seen a sparrow get high and waste his time in the sky
He thinks it's easy to fly,
he's a little bit freer than I.
Now here's a mystery, maybe you can help to make it clear to me When you're fast asleep,
What is it that's lightin' up the dreams you see All your tears can't conceal it, all your prayers may not reveal it You got soul so you can feel it And when you make the scene, then you'll know what I mean. I've seen a sparrow get high
and waste his time in the sky
He thinks it's easy to fly,
he's a little bit freer than I.
Down here on the ground, when you find folks are givin' you the run-around Keep your game up-tight- and if you must just take your secrets underground Politicians try to speech you-mad color watchers try to teach you Very few will really try to reach you If you're lost in the stack-that's okey, come on back. Now I'd be the last to deny that I'm just an average guy and don't you know each little bird in the sky Is just a little bit freer than I. Ordinary Joe, although they say you're just a lazy so and so What they think is real, is nothing but an animated puppet show So don't let time and space confuse you Don't let name and form abuse you let Big Joe Williams blues you In the light of the sun you can see how they run.I've seen a sparrow get high

and waste his time in the sky
Don't you know, he thinks it's easy to fly, he's a little bit freer than
