Goodbye To The Girl

David Cook

Versus
Paint another picture black and blue,
take another moment one or two,
just to get over you..
When did all the gold around us rust.
Turning all the love we had to dust, it took the best of you, it took the best of you..
Chorus
Oh, I`ve got nowhere to hide.
Say my Goodbye To The Girl.
I`m leaning on the edge, jumping off the ledge..
Versus
Take another picture off the wall,
Just another moment watch it fall into the ocean blue..
Take a look at where we use too be.
Now I`m just a vessel lost at sea..
I can`t get over you, I don`t know what to do..
Chorus
Oh, Ive got nowhere to hide.
Say my Goodbye To The Girl.

I`m leaning on the edge, jumping off the ledge..
Watching the night do what the light never could.
So tell me I`m crazy it`s not gonna save me,
from holding my breath till the lines blur..
Cause, I`ve got nowhere to hide.
Say my Goodbye To The Girl..
Oh, Goodbye To The Girl..
(Instrumental)
Paint another picture black and blue..
Take another moment one or two..
Chorus
Oh, I`ve got nowhere to hide.
Say my Goodbye To The Girl..
I`m leaning on the edge, jumping off the ledge..
Watching the night do what the light never could.
So tell I`m crazy it`s not gonna save me,
from holding my breath till the lines blur..
Cause I`ve got nowhere to hide.

Say my Goodbye To The Girl..
An, Goodbye To The World..
Oh, Goodbye To The World....
