

Same Old Dream

Vela

I get through the day and I guess I do alright
But I have that same old dream every night
Where we're walking on the beach hand in hand
 You turn to me, we fall slowly to the sand
 And the whole world just seems to fade away
 Then I wake up to another lonely day.

And I'll have that dream again tonight, I know
Cause it's just in dreams that I can't let you go,
Sometimes I think we dream of things that cannot be Forbidden love or winning the lottery
 To keep hope alive somewhere deep inside
 And a dream's the only place to hide.

 So I'll just keep on dreaming of you
Even though I know those dreams cannot come true
Cause you belong to someone else and I can't fight
 What happens when I close my eyes at night.

And the whole world just seems to fade away
 Then I wake up to another lonely day.

I wake up to another lonely day

Lyrics submitted by Velma Anderson.

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlyrics.com/>