

Dust on the Ground

Bombay Bicycle Club

It's that ancient love
That you won't outgrow
It's the feel pain
It's the debt you owe
Is that such a way
That you throw me down
I am inches above
The dust on the ground I wait your call
I wait your crown
Let's change our roles
And switch the mold around
Is that such a way
You throw me down
I am inches above
The dust on the ground Always quiet
Always quiet now
Always silent
Always silent now
No I don't hide it
I don't hide it now It's that ancient love
That just moves along
And there's an itch so slight
Even when you're gone
Well I meant you right
But I kept your wrong
And I must wait until I find the ground that you're walking on Always quiet
Always quiet now
Always silent
Always silent now
No I don't hide it
I don't hide it now
Now I don't hide it
I don't hide it now
