Cheaper To Keep Her

Aaron Lines

Your down on your luck.
You just lost your truck.
You cant afford another beer.
Your credit cards dont work.
Whole world thinks youre a jerk.
You wondering how you wound up here.It wouldnt been cheaper to keep her around
It wouldnt been better to let her keep you down
Living with a crazy wife beats an empty bank account
It wouldnt been cheaper to keep her aroundNow your sleeping on the couch at your best friends house watching Colombo
Eating cold pizza in your underwear
Just remember I told ya soIt wouldnt been cheaper to keep her around
It wouldnt been better to let her keep you down
Living with a crazy wife beats an empty bank account
It woulda been cheaper to keep her aroundSo if youre thinking about saying adios
Well, take it from the fool who knows
Shes gonna serve ya papers make ya pay through the nose and when her lawyer gets through with you youll have to move to Mexico.It wouldnt been cheaper to keep her around
It wouldnt been better to let her keep you down
Living with a crazy wife beats living with an empty bank accountIt woulda been cheaper to keep her around
It woulda been cheaper to keep her around
