

Anthem of the Ages

Open Heaven

The first sound, the last word
The voice that flung the stars into the sky
You are, You are
Creator, Redeemer
The Author and the Finisher of time
The cry of our hearts
We lift our voices to You, our GodChorus
You are the Anthem of the ages
You are the echo of the nations
You are the Alpha and Omega
Jesus, You are, You Are
The Anthem of the agesBridge
Come, come
Ancient of days
The One we love, we love
The nations sing Your praise
Come, Come
Set this world ablaze
With Your Love, Your love
We're singing out Your name
