Substitute

Absynthe Minded

There is a sticky feeling
'Bout that pleasant evening
A red army attack
In every women's sack
A particular way of sayin'
Ba ideas ain't stayin'
The worst idea is prayin'
That all will be good

There's a substitude
Like always it's so cheap
Yeah there's a funky road where you never fall asleep
There's a club where you can dance
You can dance away the night
I wanna dance away the time let's never look behind

Here's a little sayin'
I'll always hold on to
As long as you can think of
Things to make and to do
You won't need no prayin'
The spirit's is within you
And it's ever present
As long as you let it to

There's a substitude
Like always it's so cheap
There's a funky road where you never fall asleep
There's a club where you can dance
You can dance away the night
I wanna dance away the time let's never look behind

There's a place to hide
People always fall back to Nature will provide
The future needs a little truth

Yeah there's a substitude
Like always it's so cheap
There's a funky road where you never fall asleep

There's a club where you can dance
You can dance away the night
I wanna dance away the time let's never look behind
