I'm Leaving

Dubterror

Let me tell you why
Why he can't be with you no more
Every time that you talk, you lie
And I'm not taking it no more
He won't be a fool for you
All the things you put me through
I know it sounds crazy to you, baby
But I'm leaving you, I'm leaving, leaving
I know you're thinkin', you're the bomb and your game is tight
And usually I'd give you props, but not tonight
And I know you're thinkin' this really don't concern me
But I'll tell you what, you're messin' with my family
At the club, at the show, at the mall, we know
The look on your face said it all
Raisin' your voice ain't somethin' that you wanna do
But we can take it there, girl if you want to
Let me tell you why
Why he can't be with you no more
Every time that you talk, you lie
And I'm not taking it no more
He won't be a fool for you
All the things you put me through
I know it sounds crazy to you, baby
But I'm leaving you, I'm leaving, leaving
Wasted my time, puttin' up with all your games
I'm not a toy, so why you tryin' to play with me?
Had me believe that you was out with your friend
Until she called, askin' me where have you been
The clothes, and the wheels, and the truck, it was me
Girl, you had it good but you just couldn't see
Ain't tryin' to hear your explanation
I'm leaving you in this situation
Let me tell you why
Why he can't be with you no more
Every time that you talk, you lie
And I'm not taking it no more
He won't be a fool for you
All the things you put me through
I know it sounds crazy to you, baby

But I'm leaving you, I'm leaving, leaving
You know I gave you everything
Yeah, so did Cory, Trey and Steve
You said that you'd be true to me
She don't know what the word 'true' means
Girl, I wanna know why
But you know she just gon' lie
You said your love was mine
Again another lie
Time to step, get on, be gone, goodbye
Let me tell you why
Every time that you talk, you lie
He won't be a fool for you
I know it sounds crazy to you baby
But I'm leaving you, I'm leaving, leaving
Let me tell you why
Why he can't be with you no more
Every time that you talk, you lie
And I'm not taking it no more
He won't be a fool for you
All the things you put me through
I know it sounds crazy to you, baby
But I'm leaving you, I'm leaving, leaving
I know you think that you're the bomb and that your game is tight
And usually I'd give you props, but no, no, not tonight
I know you're thinkin' this really don't concern me
But I'll tell you what, you're messin' with my family
He won't be a fool for you
All the things you put me through
I know it sounds crazy to you, baby
But I'm leaving you, I'm leaving, leaving
