

Into the Deep

Rose Smith

Daydreaming again. Imagining her get-away.
Scheme and dream her escape.
Some kind of change.
More to the game and playing it safe.
If she could only see a way.

(Chorus)

Jump into the deep. I know what you see.
You won't find it side-lining again.

September end. Reminds her it cool and starting again.
Fear and excitement coming with change.
Waiting in vain for something to come and take a strain.
She's got that Monday feeling again.

(Chorus 2x)

She's out on every night.
Filling up the void.
Someone's on her side.
Said she don't need anymore
As she believes her lies.

The moment arrives, and a star is on the rise.
She can see where she could be.
Your destiny, don't let it slide you by.
Keep your eyes on the sky.

(Chorus 2x)
