

Anthem (We Are the Fire)

Trivium

Just when they thought
You were through
You've burned their lies
Now your strengthen it's true

Turn your backs on your enemies
And let those motherfuckers rot in their jealousy

They
Can't stand
That the worlds up for taking
And we're adamant
Hell bent
Determined to dominate everything

We are the fire
We are the fire
We'll sound the Anthem
We are the fire

The music connects
Unites us more
Our masses strengthened
An Unstoppable horde

We're all now a family
Together let's show the world what we say

They
Can't stand
That the worlds up for taking
And we're adamant
Hell bent
Determined to dominate everything

Turn your backs on your enemies
And let those sons of a bitchas rot in their jealousy

We're all now a family

Together let's show the world what we say

We are the fire
We are the fire
We'll sound the Anthem
We are the fire
We are the fire
We'll sound the Anthem
We are the fire
