True Colours

Keshia Chante

I needed a friend and you were there like a brother
Through good times and bad, always there for me
We were so tight I trusted you like no other
Now I miss you so much, the way you made me feel'Cause we would talk for hours on the phone
And you were always there to walk me home
Now looking back I guess, I should have known
But I, I couldn't see it, now I feel itTell me how did I miss that
I'd give the world if I could just go back
To the day, when friends, was all you had in mind
But now I see the true colours in your eyesThen you stepped to me in a way that was more than I wanted
And when I said, "No, I don't feel that way 'bout you"
The look on your face said everything and I got it
And now I know, I was right
'Cause it's been weeks since I heard from youWe used to talk for hours on the phone
And you were always there to walk me home
Now looking back I guess I should have known
But I, I couldn't see it, now I feel itTell me how did I miss that
I'd give the world if I could just go back
To the day, when friends, was all you had in mind
But now I see the true colours in your eyesWas everything we had a lie, tell me now, baby?
Thought I knew you, thought it was true
I thought that I had something special with you
Oh, why'd you have to go and ruin such a good thing?And we were so tight, thought it was right
And sometimes I wish you was back in my life'Cause we would talk for hours on the phone
And you were always there to walk me home
Now looking back, I guess I should have known
But I, I couldn't see it, now I feel itTell me how did I miss that
I'd give the world if I could just go back
To the day, when friends, was all you had in mind
But now I see the true colours in your eyesTrue colours shining through
Now I see your true colours painting you
True colours in your eyes
