Just a Thought

Modern English

Reckless I feel, reckless I feel
It's something ideal, it's something idealSpace between the thoughts and acts
A mind ? see us ? pay the way
Who knowingly mowed us
Who seemingly owed us? cast aside
From the wreckage to the tide
Feel the touch of excitement while
Adrenaline ?
Oh ?
They were too young
They were too youngUse your knowledge
Use your knowledge
Feel the words
Feel the wordsA time to act now
A time to ?
Now relax boys
Now relaxJust a thought, just a thought
Just a thought, just a thought
Just a thought, just a thought
Just a thought, just a thought
Just a thought, just a thought
For you to face
Just a thought, just a thought
For you to face
Just a thought, just a thought
For you to face
Just a thought? cast aside
From the wreckage to the tide
Feel the touch of excitement while
Adrenaline ?
Oh ?
They were too young
They were too young
They were too young
They were too young
