Just a Thought

Modern English

Reckless I feel, reckless I feel
It's something ideal, it's something idealSpace between the thoughts and acts
A mind? see us? pay the way
Who knowingly mowed us
Who seemingly owed us? cast aside
From the wreckage to the tide
Feel the touch of excitement while

Adrenaline?

Oh?

They were too young
They were too youngUse your knowledge
Use your knowledge
Feel the words
Feel the words time to act now

A time to?

Now relax boys

Now relaxJust a thought, just a thought

Just a thought, just a thought

For you to face

Just a thought, just a thought

For you to face

Just a thought, just a thought

For you to face

Just a thought? cast aside

From the wreckage to the tide

Feel the touch of excitement while

Adrenaline?

Oh?

They were too young

They were too young

They were too young

They were too young
