Exiled

Judas Priest

I must leave from fear they send
Journey with the dawn
As I take the winding road
Bow my head forlorn, now I must goI'm banished in exile

I wander this land

No faith in the future

I'm in their commandCross over the mountains

And valleys so wide

I walk as I wander

With hope by my sideAll my friends are far away

How I miss my home

Where do I find peace of mind

Guide me as I roam, I cry for youI'm banished in exile

To meet their demand

Rejected messiah

They don't understandI'm searching for something

That's lost in my heart

God knows I'm a sinner

I'm falling apartIf this is my destiny

I've got to believe

The passion inside me

Has left me to bleedI'm banished in exile

I wander this land

No faith in my future

I'm in their commandCross over the mountains

And valleys so wide

I walk as I wander

With hope by my sideIf this is my destiny

I've got to believe

This passion inside of me

Has left me to bleed, oh
