

Young Bucks

Dinosaur Feathers

Well I can't be with you.
I'll only let you down.
You're gonna find in the nick of time
I'm never gonna sign on the dotted line.

And you've seen my best now
And you know what I can do.
If you can't sow the seeds by now,
You're never gonna harvest 'em anyhow.

You dream as a liar
But I dream of the truth.
In between there's nothing we can do (do do do do do do)

I'm only dreaming.
I'll only hurt myself.
When the wind's coming crashing down,
I'm the only one standing on the ground.

And you've had your chances.
You know that you'll get more.
To wake with the seeds of doubt
We'll run until the second offense is out.

You dream as a liar
And I dream in the truth.
In between there's nothing we can do (do do do do do do do do)

Carolina,
Austin, Paris, France.
Oh, the places you go
You go at your own expense.

Thanks for the memories.
They're nothing if not fond.
If you keep hanging on.
Well we don't know how to sit still anymore.
There's nothing to learn if we're four.

I can't be with you,

Iâ€™ll only let you down.
Youâ€™re gonnaâ€™ find in the nick of time
Iâ€™m never gonnaâ€™ sign on the dotted line.

And you dream as a liar
And I dream in the truth.
In between thereâ€™s nothing we can do (do)

We can do
We can do
We can do (oh-oh-oh)
