End of the Affair

Johnathan Rice

So, honey
It's the end of the affair,
It's the end of the affair, and I don't care
So, sugar, been a long hard dirty year
Been a long hard dirty year
My dearYou've got all your problems, I've got mine (my hands are tied behind me)
All I ever do is waste your time (I don't believe it's true)
It ain't right
It ain't rightI want you
To leave me alone
Just leave me the hell alone
On my own
Why won't you
Lie and let it lay
Let this dog have it's day, anywayYou've got all your problems, I've got mine (my hands are tied behind me)
All you ever do is waste my time (I don't believe it's true)
It ain't right
It ain't right
It ain't right
Right
Right
Right
