Mama's Little Baby

Stampead

baby lost her button but she found her gold
too stressed too rest
like mothers in full moon has everything gone bad or is just nothing good and you say oh oh oh
is it all that you know
oh oh oh mamas baby
has gone to war

there are socks by your pillow there are acrobats in your bed another blue orgy another long night as long as we feel guilty I guess it?s alright
and you say oh oh oh
is it all that we know
oh oh oh mamas babys
gone to war

I'd like to say I am
a left shouldered man
but the devil on my right speaks my language too well I?m spinning drunk here in my circles seeing angels in hell and they say momas little baby
has gone to war

and now with only good thoughts maybe I can catch you there?s no socks by my pillow no thoughts on my shoulders no sex in the sheets until the war is over and so germs are all we wanted but I?ll take your love too whatever it is you want I guess I want it too

and you say oh oh oh
I barely know you ya know
oh oh oh mamas babys
