

Too Much

Al Green

Can I have a kiss?
Can I have a touch?
Its too much baby
I dont wanna hold you back Your smiling face
Your lips on mine
Your love divine
Oh, its too much baby Listen, I wanna say
Thats its too much
Too much for me
Come on now Oh baby, too much baby
Too much for me
I gotta say, ooh Your smilin' face
Your lips on mine
Talkin about a love divine
Its too much, oh Everyday feel like Sunday
And your smile is something I cant fathom
Its just too much, I love you too much, just
I cant keep holdin you back, its Your love is way too much
Baby, I said its too much
Girl, its too much, oh hey I was one step closer
To your arms from mine
I feel your love so divine
It, it, it, it, it, it, its
Just, just, just, just, just, too, too much
Too much for me I, I want to take you in my arms
Just one more time Im askin
Give me your love
I dont need no hug Its too much
Too much for me
Oh, that loves just
It is too much Oh now, its too much for me
Baby, its too much
