The Truth Is Lyin' Next to You

Randy Travis

Everybody said I'd leave you
They gave us six months to a year
Said our love would just fall pray to
The jukebox, women and the beerThey wanna start those rumors flyin'
They're watchin' for a rendez-vous
But if they ever say I'm cheatin'
They'll be lyin', the truth is lyin' next to youTruth is, I'm gonna be here for a long long time
I'll stay forever or till you say goodbye
Don't need a neon moon to make my night shine
And if you need some lovin' proof, just reach out
The truth is lyin' next to youOver phone lines and back fences
We're the talk of this whole town
They just shake their heads and wonder
They can't believe I'm still aroundThey can search the backstreet barrooms
To see if I'm with someone new
But if they ever say they saw me
They'll be lyin', the truth is lyin' next to youTruth is, I'm gonna be here for a long long time
I'll stay forever or till you say goodbye
Don't need a neon moon to make my night shine
And if you need some lovin' proof, just reach out
The truth is lyin' next to youTruth is, I'm gonna be here for a long long time
I'll stay forever or till you say goodbye
Don't need a neon moon to make my night shine
And if you need some lovin' proof, just reach out
The truth is lyin' next to you

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/