Goin' Down to Laurel

Steve Forbert

Well everybody here, seems to like to laugh
Look at Johnny jivin' across the floor
He can play the fool and make a few mistakes
But all the same he'll never be a boreI'm glad to be so young talkin' with my tongue
Glad to be so careless in my way
Glad to take a chance and play against the odds
Glad to be so crazy in my dayWell I'm goin' down to Laurel
It's a dirty stinkin' town yeah
But me I know exactly
What I'm going to findLittle girl I'm goin' to see
She is a fool for lovin' me
But she's in love
And love's a funny state of mindWell what was that you said when you had a tear
Rolling down your cheek the other night
I couldn't catch it all there's something going wrong
I hope you got it straightened out alrightEverything's so loud and everything's so fast
I hear your brother married once again
Yeah, the best of luck and all and try to have some fun
They tell me this great life can always endWell I'm goin' down to Laurel
It's a dirty stinkin' town yeah
But me I know exactly
What I'm going to findLittle girl I'm goin' to see
She is a fool for lovin' me
But she's in love
And love's a funny state of mind, yes it isI'm smilin' from a car, I'm goin' for a drive
Feel the whistle blowin' breeze gone flying by Mirror's on the moon, echo in the sun
See just a touch of madness in my eyePlease don't mention rain, please don't talk of trains
Please don't mention buildings burnin' down
Everybody here, seems to like to laugh
Either step in time or just don't hang aroundWell, well I'm goin' down to Laurel
It's a dirty stinkin' town, yeah
But me I know exactly
What I'm going to findLittle girl I'm goin' to see
She is a fool for lovin' me
But she's in love
And love's a funny state of mindOh tell me what I say now
She's in love and
Love's a funny state of mind

Yeah
