Blind Faith

Stealers Wheel

Do you remember back in 64?
You came a-knockin, knockin on my door
Yeah, you really got me going, but you kept me on ice
I didnt care where I was going, no, I didnt think twiceI was just a young boy, yeah, I was so green
You were so experienced, you know what I mean
Still you really got me going, but you kept me on ice
I didnt care where I was going, no, I didnt think twiceBlind faith was all we had
Looking back it all seems kind of sad
We just sat around and watched it all go badI said, I never thanked you for everything youd done
I had to do a lot of walking before I could run
Still you really got me going, but you kept me on ice
I didnt care where I was going, no, I didnt think twiceBlind faith was all we had
Looking back it all seems kind of sad
We just sat around and watched it all go badBlind faith was all we had
Looking back it all seems kind of sad
We just sat around and watched it all go bad
