

The World Needs a Drink

Terri Clark

Turned on the TV, more crime in the streets
More trouble in the Middle East and fire's out West
Politicians flingin' dirt, got decension in the Church
Another law suit in the works, man you talk about a mess Too much tension between
Miss Liberty and the Eiffel Tower
It's about time we all made up
At some big happy hour I think the world needs a drink, I think enough's enough
She's been spinnin' around so long I'd say she's pretty wound up
Calm down, sit back, relax, tear up the contracts and save the ink
Yeah, I think the world needs a drink I bet we'd get somethin' done, over 2 for ones
Rubbin' elbows with the big guns, wouldn't that be cool?
Call all the rich and the poor, the peace keepers and the warlords
We'll cut some deals over nothing more than a shot of 90 proof There ain't nothin' wrong
A few cold beers can't iron out
In fact you tell me just when and where
And I'll buy the first round I think the world needs a drink, I think enough's enough
She's been spinnin' around so long I'd say she's pretty wound up
Let's all calm down sit back relax, tear up the contracts and save the ink
Yeah, I think the world needs a drink Hey let's all calm down, sit back, relax
Tear up the contracts and save the ink
Yeah, I think the world needs
Don't you think the world needs a couple of drinks?
I know, I do, yeah, that's right
