

Enter the Gates

Bryan & Katie Torwalt

IntroVerse 1

My eyes on Your faithfulness
God let me not forget to sing in the valley
To look toward Your goodness
My heart set on who You are
You're the light that consumes the dark
The joy and the strength to lift up my hands and singChorus
I enter the gates with nothing but thanks
I want to magnify Your worth
I want to bring You more than words
I enter the gates, come reckless with praise
I'll bring a heart that wants You first
All for Your gloryInstrumentalVerse 2

My feet on the battle ground
My weapon will be my sound
I will not be silent
My song is my triumphCHORUS
I enter the gates with nothing but thanks
I want to magnify Your worth
I want to bring You more than words
I enter the gates, come reckless with praise
I'll bring a heart that wants You first
All for Your gloryBridge

Sing, My soul will sing
My soul will make this place an altar
Make this place an altarCHORUS
I enter the gates with nothing but thanks
I want to magnify Your worth
I want to bring You more than words
I enter the gates, come reckless with praise
I'll bring a heart that wants You first
All for Your gloryOutro
