

Hurt An Enemy

Beekeeper

kitty, i know that you miss me, know you wanna kiss me are these blockages or possibilities whats a boy to do?
autobiography, lets play at photography if i sing a song, oh kitty will you follow me whats a boy to do?dont give up so easytake it or leave it come on and begin with me take it or leave it wont give up til you sing with mewhat is the by-product of your production logic?
do you want to start it, or do you want to stop it?
whats a boy to do?
you get away from me, then you get so friendly i dont want to hurt you, i want to hurt an enemy whats a boy to do?offers on the tablei sing a song you sing along i sing a song you sing along you were a genius all along you were an enemy all along
