

Just Any Day Now

Kenny & Amanda Smith Band

each time I stop to take the time to look around me I see the suns of hymns appearing everywhere things he set the times of past are now before us and I can feel the strange excitement In the air Just any day now our Lord is coming he'll be returning for you and me and though I'll be watching and I'll be waiting Just any day now his face shall see there's this solving in my heart for he is hearing and the gladly leave behind his trials he beloved for his Journey has been hard and I'm so weary and Lord fill fill much closer home Just any day now our Lord is coming he'll be returning for you and me and though I'll be watching and I'll be waiting Just any day now his face shall see Just! any! day! now! his face shall see.

Lyrics Submitted by SupremeYolk41

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>