

So Good

Destiny's Child

Hey, how you doing?
Yeah, I'm doing mighty fine
Last time I seen, it's been a long time
Stop smiling at me, get that look off your face
Please don't even front, stop being so fake
I know you do not like me
Yeah, you've made it very clear
You always talkin' 'bout me from what I hear
Always put me down when you thought that you could
But I want you to know that I'm doin' so good
Wasn't it you that said
I thought I was all that
And you said and I didn't have a clue
Wasn't it you that said
That I wouldn't make it through
And wasn't it you that said
That I didn't look too good
That I wouldn't do too good
I'd never make it out the hood
I want you to know that I'm doing so good
(So good, so good, so good)
I know you hate it, but I'm
(So good, so good, so good)
I'm doin' so, so, so, so, so good
(So good, so good, so good)
It's hard to face it, but I'm
(So good, so good, so good)
This is for the haters
That had said we wouldn't make it
Now we're doin' platinum
And now you can't take it
For all the people 'round us that have been negative
Look at us now an' see how we live
I stay down with my people
All the ones who keep it real
Didn't get caught up
And how that make you feel?
All the things I'm doin'
That you thought I never could

I want you to know that I'm doin' so good
Wasn't it you that said
That I thought I was all that
And you said I didn't have a clue
Wasn't it you that said
That I wouldn't make it through
Wasn't it you that said
That I wouldn't do too good
Look at me, now ain't God good
And now I made it out the hood
I want you to know that, I'm doing so good
(So good, so good, so good)
I know you hate it, but I'm
(So good, so good, so good)
I'm doin' so, so, so, so, so good
(So good so good so good)
It's hard to face it but I'm so good
(So good, so good, so good)
I'm doing so, so, so, so, so
I'm doing so, so, so, so, so
I'm doing so, so, so, so, so
Good, good, good, good, good, good
I'm doing so, so, so, so, so
I'm doing so, so, so, so, so
I'm doing so, so, so, so, so
Good, good, good, good, good, good
(So good, so good, so good)
I know you hate it, but I'm so good
(So good so good so good)
(So good, so good, so good)
I'm so, so good
(So good, so good, so good)
Baby face it, I'm doin' good
(So good, so good, so good)
Yeah, doin' good, good, good
(So good, so good, so good)
Doin' good, good, good, good
(So good, so good, so good)
Gosh! I pay bills
