

Somebody to Love

Nelly Furtado

You got your ways enough of mine, it's taking up
All of my time, we need you to adore me
Come sit and drink from a cup, don't leave
Until you're filled up, you're tired of all your traveling I don't need nothing at all, nothing but your kiss
Nothing but your arms, I don't need nothing at all But somebody to love, somebody to hold
Somebody that I can feel in my blood
Somebody to hold, somebody to own
Somebody to make me feel I'm in love I know I'm missing for a word, I'm not trying
To say a thing, I'm trying to live in this moment
Count all the sins, what it says, tell me
How long it'll take to unravel your body I don't need nothing at all, nothing but your touch
Nothing but your hand, I don't need nothing at all But somebody to love, somebody to hold
Somebody that I can feel in my blood
Somebody to hold, somebody to own
Somebody to make me feel I'm in love I need somebody to love, somebody to hold
Somebody that I can feel in my blood
Somebody to hold, somebody to own
Somebody to make me feel I'm in love
