

Congratulations

Vesta

Saw an old friend yesterday,
She said today's your wedding,
My heart stopped,
The tears dropped.
Saw my whole life pass me by
I had to see you baby.
I never ran so fast before,
I rushed inside the chapel door
You were waiting all alone,
You turned and heard me call.

Congratulations, I thought it would have been me,
Standing here with you.
Congratulations, I hope you're happy,
Cause as long as I can breathe, you'll always be the one for me.

Why was I last to know,
I thought that we were special.
My soul shakes, my heart breaks,
As I turn and walk away
I can't believe it's over.
We really never said goodbye,
Thought we'd give it one more try.
Felt our love was here to stay
And now today's your wedding day

Congratulations, I thought it would have been me
Standing here with you
Congratulations, I hope you're happy
Cause as long as I can breathe, you'll always be the one for me.

Congratulations, baby!
I hope she makes you happy because you didn't even say good-bye
I thought it should have been me,
Cause as long as I breathe, you'll always be the one for me.
Cause as long as I breathe, you'll always be the one for me.
