

Hypocrite (feat. Jared Evan)

Allan Kingdom

I've met enough pretenders, good luck to them
Why, why middle of September
We fucked again
I, I don't really like champagne
Let me get inside campaign
Let me get a little more time in your mind
From behind, get high, imma fight your pain (pain)
Ay
I'm faded and feeling miraculous
The demons is chasing they after us
They might be catching right up to us
I'm all up on your neck like Dracula
Then Imma tell you this isn't bad for us Won't pretend to be like you
But I'm just like you
I'm a hypocrite Now I keep a lot of options
But that's okay
You, you tell me that's my problem
But you're the same
I swear, you got fatter thighs
Than the one I lied to
I just fantasized
Gotta plan inside you
You tell me that I'm tripping
But so are you (you)
You tell me that I'm slipping
We both are too
What you really need me for?
What you really fiending for?
Why you gotta make it hard?
Who you keep it easy for?
Won't pretend to be like you
But i'm just like you
I'm a hypocrite Baby you're a savage You like what I like Baby you're a savage
