

Beautiful

The Youngbloods

Say what you will, say what you feel
Feeling inside, yeah, say what you will
Show me what's hiding behind your eyes
Don't keep 'em feelings locked up inside
Tear down your wall, don't let 'em hide you
Reach out your pain, can't you understand
You're beautiful Do what you will
Pay no attention to the small mind, oh no, no
Do what you will
Or laugh at convention, it's not a crime, no, no, no, no Open your eyes and look around you
Lovers everywhere, they surround you
Reach out your pain, can't you understand
You're beautiful, beautiful, beautiful now You're so beautiful, oh, do you, do you feel it
Beautiful, beautiful, now, I sure hope you feel it Come on now, say what you will Say what your feelin', feelin' inside
Come on and say what you will
Show me what's hiding behind your eyes, girl
Don't keep 'em feelings locked up inside you
Tear down your wall, don't let 'em hide you
Reach out your pain, can't you understand You're beautiful, beautiful, beautiful now
So beautiful, beautiful, do you feel it now?
