The Task

Still Remains

it is ongoing,
I will never cease to give you my love, there are many outside who try to intrude and disrupt, will you cast your magic dust on me will they breathe it into my lungs will you show them your mercy if they give you their hearts,my mission wont fail, I will not look astrayyou won't sell out to me, you've got me hooked to your line, keep pulling me toward you and I won't turn away (or blink)you won't sell out to me,
you've got me hooked to your line, keep pulling me toward you and I won't turn away (or blink)my love for you is like a prison, my devotion is sealed away so tight my love for you is like a prision my love for you my heart for you my mission was failed
I will not look upset
