'Bloody Murder'

Genuflect

Yeah, come on everybody, get your weapons up and sing
Yeah, here we go, here we go, here we go nowI'm drowning in hatred
I'm falling down onto my knees in prayer
And I will pray for my lord
To kill my enemies
I will sacrifice
I will complicate
I will bring you down onto your knees in shame
And you'll remember my name
I'm so blind I only see what I wanna see
So called martyr for God's murderYou're not ready
You're not ready for this genesis of a brave new world
You're not ready
You're not ready for this apocalyptic and cryptic script
I'm spitting bloody murder
Bloody murder
Come on, everybody get your weapons up
And sing bloody murder
Bloody murder
It's the apocalyptic and cryptic script I'm spitting outAll our children bleed and there was never, never need
I'm so blind I only see what I wanna see
Sacrifice
I will complicate
I will bring you down onto your knees in shame
And you'll remember my name
Don't you see?
You only see what you wanna seeSo called martyr for God's murderYou're not ready
You're not ready for this genesis of a brave new world
You're not ready
You're not ready for this apocalyptic and cryptic script
I'm spitting bloody murder
Bloody murder
Come on, everybody get your weapons up
And sing bloody murder
Bloody murder
It's the apocalyptic and cryptic script I'm spitting out
Spitting out, spitting out, spitting outCan I feel down into your heart?
Can my love heal your fears?He's ready to meet his maker but now
Doesn't matter how many will die

He can't wait to see those open golden gates
Watch his whole life flash before his eyes
Yeah, he's ready to meet his maker but now
Doesn't matter how many will die
But as the bomb blows his body in half
He reads the writing on the wall for the very first time
That says, "You never mattered"
It says "You never mattered"You never matteredYou're not ready
You're not ready
You're not ready for this
You're not ready for this
You're not ready for this apocalyptic and cryptic script
I'm spitting bloody murder
Bloody murder
Come on, everybody get your weapons up, -up, -up
And sing bloody murder
Bloody murder
It's the apocalyptic and cryptic script I'm spitting out my mouth
