

From the Stalls

Angus & Julia Stone

I see you, I see you waiting
I saw you, I saw you standing there
You want it to be over that stone wall
Over that first floor, over that old hotel room
Tell 'em what you're here for, you don't know
Tell 'em what you're here for, you don't know
Oh, you go there, you go there
But you go there, you go there
Oh, you go there, you go there
Yeah, you do
I saw them, I saw them waiting
Why was I, why was I peeking
That you want it to be over that stone wall
Over that first floor, over that old hotel room
Tell 'em what you're here for, you don't know
Tell 'em what you're here for, you don't know
Oh, you go there, you go there
But you go there, you go there
Oh, you go there, you go there
Yeah, you do
Bobby stands behind me, feels my pulse
Until the horses run like from the stars
I know you can win this
You've got too much in this
You're just standing, watch me fall
I bet you wanted to be over that stone wall
Over that first floor, over that old hotel room
Tell 'em what you're here for, you don't know
Tell 'em what you're here for, you don't know
Oh, you go there, you go there
But you go there, you go there
Oh, you go there, you go there
Yeah, you do
