Big Things

Remady P&R

Get yours nigga 'cuz I'ma get mine in due time
Everybody a-shine, get yours, I spray nines
I say this one time, the last time, I swear to y'all
I'm from where the dope fiends is at and killas crawlAnd snitches call police, all these niggas and street
Corners everybody's like smokin' marijuana and Snuffin' niggas in faces and startin' drama and Shootin' niggas in cold blood, just kill 'em, so whatWith the fo' pound go nuts
Betta slow up, before you get your ass on up
Nigga never gonna grow up
Drinkin' the Henney but he know he gon' throw upTryin' to make crack sales
What it look like? Future for a black male
Don't want to make my momma cry
On a front page for a homicideFly whips, all I wanted to drive
Where chicks get blunted and then ride
Do a 105 in the fast lane
And a fast pace, chasin' the papesSpendin' chips on big chains
And the dimes that give brains
That was a 80's and 90's thing
Now, I'm into big thingsNah, I ain't fuck with you
Now, I'm into big things
Gotta get my life together man
'Cuz now, I'm into big thingsNah, I ain't gonna rhyme wit you
'Cuz now I'm into big things
You know I can't do that shit no more
'Cuz now, I'm into big thingsNah, I can't fuck with you
I'm into big things
Nah, I ain't gonna stand on the corner
I'm into big thingsNow, the talk is small talk
I'm into big things
I'm into big things
The big things, the big thingsWhen I started this, all I wanted was cars and cribs
Like other rap artists
But do I know where I'm goin' to?
Can I forget when I came from? I be showin' youAnother style I'ma flow for you
Can I make somethin' wild I can throw for you? Flow for you?
Make it bi-coastal, take it to heights
That some of y'all can't come close to?Some of y'all want to talk like hoes
Worse than bitches
And when y'all niggas see me blow

Bet it hurt like stitchesNo competition, I stop and twist 'em
Hit 'em like a mafia proposition
I'm glad y'all stopped and listen
Thinkin' back to when I had not pot to piss inLook up at a nigga nod, rocks are glistenin'
Can't stop my mission, make anotha LP drop
I'm hittin' with the new shit exclusiveNo time to get caught up in a crime
I ain't have shit to do with
Used to chase the hoes, now, I chase the dough
Is y'all bitches gonna help me get paper? NoNah, I ain't fuck with you
Now, I'm into big things
Gotta get my life together man
'Cuz now, I'm into big thingsNah, I ain't gonna rhyme wit you
'Cuz now I'm into big things
You know I can't do that shit no more
'Cuz now, I'm into big thingsNah, I can't fuck with you
I'm into big things
Nah, I ain't gonna stand on the corner
I'm into big thingsNow, the talk is small talk
I'm into big things
I'm into big things
The big things, the big thingsI go past y'all, y'all got the glass jar
And when I hit it, admit it, y'all on y'all ass y'all
We on the same team, you don't wanna pass the ball
Chuck and gun up the doughYou want to score but you really don't want to ball
I put you on, it was me that introduced you to wealth
Crossin' me is like shootin' yourself
Wanna blow so fast now do it yourselfYou ain't shit, now, you was so ill, why you never came out?
Where ya clique now? Where you sit now? In the back seat
Mad 'cuz I flip styles and I pack heat
Make you run laps like a pro athlete an' I done thatFrom my experiences, I appear relentless
Take more time just to hear my sentence
I'ma tell you what's real
An' what could stop you from makin' a mil
You could prevent thisWhen niggas don't see eye to eye to you
Lie to you, wanna get high wit you
Want to eat food off of your labor
And take food off your table'Cuz they don't see your vision
Don't understand your mission
Is to make history, while you here
How long you plan on livin'?Not for forever, at least to 140
Pray for me, I'm tryin' to eat
Like the niggas who bought
Motown on Berry Gordy
Good GodNigga, I'm tired of games
I'm into big things

Gotta get my life together man
'Cuz now, I'm into big thingsNow, the talk is small talk
'Cuz now I'm into big things
I'm into big things
The big things, the big thingsMan, we already did that
Now, I'm into big things
No time to get sidetracked
Now, I'm into big thingsGet money now besides that
Some more big things
I'm into big things
The big things, the big things
