

Spread Your Wings (feat. Zakk Wylde)

Black Label Society

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Destroy this world and all it is
This rain that falls just kill it dead Bring your pain and bring all your hate
Lord, I'll kill it all again Oh yeah, spread your wings now child, never return
Hell before Heaven 'fore we all get burned This poison that bleeds our souls down in yourself
Can you see what's goin' on? Bring your pain and bring all your hate
Lord, I'll kill it all again Oh yeah, spread your wings now child, never return
Hell before Heaven 'fore we all get burned Oh yeah, spread your wings now child, never return
Hell before Heaven 'fore we all get burned Spread your wings now child, never return
Hell before Heaven 'fore we all get burned
