World Domination

Clawfinger

I've been scared to be heard and I've feared that my words would appear in a place that was weird and absurd, while my face is replaced with a picture of me, where you see all the faults of the fake imagery, In the great industry I've been made by the trade while I make my mistakes in this great masquerade the parade is all phony and they're laughing at me, when they see how I deal with my own misery history is repeated and my brain is deleted but I'll stay in my seat up until I'm defeated the beat may be distant but I still hear the click and I'll kick up a storm until I make myself sick and when I loose the plot and they tighten the knot then I'll take what I can, when I can while I'm hotI've figured out the plot, I'll give it what I've got I'll give it my best shot, if you like it or notI want just World domination Give me world domination [2x]It's been more than a year of ignoring my fear cos I've cleared out my thoughts until they disappeared I still hear the signals and I see all the signs they've all been assigned to the back of my mind and I find that in time all my doubts are outshined by a new kind of faith that I place in my shrine I refuse to resign or give in to my wims so I follow the line for as long as my limbs choose to carry my weight and my heart still pulsates the stakes may be high but I can't hesitate I'll do whatever it takes to break out of this mould and to shake off the demons and whatever upholds me from being the best I can possibly be the most meanest and leanest and dopest MCI've figured out the plot, I'll give it what I've got I'll give it my best shot, if you like it or notI want just World domination Give me world domination [2x]You can all hate me but you can't duplicate me cos' I've been copywrited and no one can break me I'll shake up your rumours with humour that's lethal til' you understand that you can't be my equal 'there won't be no sequel for as long as I'm standing it's totally wrong it's a misunderstanding or a misunderstatment do you need a translation killing you with my mouth is my main occupationI've figured out the plot, I'll give it what I've got I'll give it my best shot, cos' I'm right on spotI want just World domination

Give me world domination [2x]
