

Ain't No Lord

The Moondoggies

Tell me boy,
what's been bothering your mind?
Is it all them clouds rollin' in?
    such sorry people always looking for their rewards so I laid out my cold hands ain't no lord gonna judge me now ain't no one gonna put me down ain't no home to rest my bones ain't no woman gonna put me down ooh, ooh hoo
    and I found you under a rock I feel this old heart has been stetched too thin though I wrap my soul in sin but maybe I can have a train and leave it all behind me go and bury my worries in the breeze ain't no lord gonna judge me now
    ain't no home to stretch my bones
    ain't no woman gonna put me down
    ooh, ooh hoo
    ooh ooh hoo
