Goodbye

Wizo

Time with you was like Heaven on earth, think that I've never felt better before yes'n first I thought it's just a simple oneday Love, but the I realized, that it was much more.Like two death-ill patients we tried to enjoy the life every minute sleep seemed like wasted time we tried to forget the moment, that will come to sure, when we hold each other in the arms the last timecause our time was counted on the first day when we met and so we took our love instead of beeing sad 'n now the day has come for us to say goodbye and I know when you are gone that I will dieTime is running out, it's running out much to fast Time with you is running out, it's becoming past now the best time of my life has been passing by and the time is coming now for us to say goodbye
